Nothing Better

As tall and stately as the Darwins Breeders are, perhaps, the most interesting class of all Tulips, for in them we find Nature's happiest color-combinations in harmonious blendings of purple and bronze, yellow and bronze, brown and orange, and various shades and tones of buff and bronze. Since the revival of the taste for pastel colors, Breeder Tulips have become extremely popular and they deserve it, not only because of their peculiar odd colors, but also for their great lasting qualities, huge size of their flowers and stems, which many times eclipse even the largest Darwin Tulips. Plant them 5 inches deep to the bottom of the bulb and 6 inches apart, either in solid beds or in clumps of twelve to twenty-five.

Bacchus. 30 in. Dark violet-blue; enormous broad flower on strong, stiff stems; very vigorous. $3.50 per doz., $27 per 100.

COTTAGE TULIPS

A glorious group of Tulips particularly adapted for naturalizing. Many of these varieties have been found growing about the country houses and cottages in England and France for many years, hence the name. They are charming in groups in the borders and among shrubs and are absolutely hardy. They have stately flowers with long, narrow cups, some elongated flowers, with pointed petals beautifully reflexed at the edges; many of them sweet scented. A truly interesting class that should be much more extensively planted in our gardens. Plant them the same way as all late Tulips—5 inches deep to the bottom of the bulb and 6 inches apart.

Beautiful Darwin Tulips

These are the glory of the spring garden with their lovely cups brimming with color and nodding a merry "Good morning" to you every day for weeks. Tall and stately with huge flowers towering erect on strong stems, they at once compel admiration and delight. Plant the bulbs 5 inches deep to the bottom of the bulb and 6 inches apart, either in clumps or groups of twenty-five or more, or in beds. Any time between October 15 and November 10 is the best time to plant, although it may be done until the ground freezes hard.

Extra-Selected Dutch Hyacinths

TOP ROOTS (Exhibition Bulbs)

A special pick of the largest bulbs produced in Holland. Sound, plump, and well matured, producing strong spikes of great length—you can buy no better. This size should always be selected for pot or glass culture, as they are far more vigorous in growth and produce larger and finer flower-trusses than the smaller bulbs. Unexcelled for outdoor planting for the same reason.

Hyacinths grow in any good garden soil, but a well-enriched soil induces more perfect growth and larger flower-spikes. Well-rotted barnyard manure, sheep-manure, or bone-meal, liberally applied, well dug in, and mixed with the soil is very helpful. Set bulbs 6 inches apart each way and 6 inches deep (to bottom of bulb). Hyacinths are perfectly hardy, but a light covering of salt-hay, leaves, or straw, after the ground is frozen, will prove beneficial.

Narcissi or Daffodils

What else so cheerful as the Daffodils that greet you early in spring? Of snowy white or mellow gold, they bloom profusely—almost anywhere, even in poor soil. Once planted, they multiply and bloom more abundantly and charmingly year after year without care.

Plant these bulbs generously on your lawn (for they will be through blooming before you cut the grass), along your shrubbery border, or fringing the roadside, or even in the nearby woods—anywhere they will grow unmolested—and you will reap unbounded joy every spring when they are in bloom. Plant bulbs 6 inches deep and the same distance apart. Daffodils are easily grown in pots for winter blooming, the Large Trumpet and Double-flowering varieties being especially good for that purpose.

NOTE. The importation of Narcissi bulbs from Holland and other countries is now prohibited by our Government, but sufficient notice has been given to enable us to grow them in our own country. We have chosen the state of Virginia where their culture has flourished since the days of the earliest settlers. After extensive tests we are satisfied that our Virginia-grown bulbs will produce just as fine results as those formerly imported, and while not, perhaps, as large in size, our American-grown bulbs are firmer and thoroughly acclimated, and no better stock can be had anywhere. For several years, until stocks are sufficiently increased, there will be a limited supply and we therefore advise early orders.

POLYANTHUS NARCISSI

These lovely flowering bulbs, formerly imported from the south of France, are now prohibited from import. Millions are now grown in this country in Florida, California, and other sections. We have made extensive tests with bulbs grown in all sections of the country and found that those grown on the Pacific coast have given the most satisfactory results. We have not, as yet, been able to get every bulb to bloom, and in our tests the California bulbs showed 85 per cent bloom. Also the American bulbs respond later, and if grown in dishes in pebbles and water, they should not be started before November. We are offering the best and most satisfactory bulbs produced in this country.

Superb Modern Peonies

FOR FALL
PLANTING

A selection made now assures a special pick of the strongest roots

WE BEGIN TO SHIP OUR PEONY ROOTS IN SEPTEMBER—ORDER NOW

Always plant Peonies in the fall, for the roots are then in prime condition. While they grow well in any good garden soil, they will amply repay any time spent in manuring the surface. Care should be taken to keep the manure a few inches away from the crowns of the plants, except the first winter, when a coarse mulch an inch or more deep may be placed directly over the plants to prevent the frost from heaving them. It is not necessary to fertilize rich soil. In poor soil, the manure should be kept 10 inches from the surface, and well mixed with the subsoil; after planting, apply manure to surface, as previously advised. Never allow manure to come in contact with the roots as it rots them. Set roots 2 feet or more apart and cover top eyes not more than 2 to 3 inches; deep planting often results in blind growth.

Our Peonies are extra-strong 1-year-old field-grown roots (not divisions)

Hardy Garden Lilies

No garden is complete without at least a few of these stately beauties, the blooming season of which may be extended from June to September if the proper varieties are planted. Large plantings of L. candidum, L. tigrinum, and the Speciosum varieties are recommended, and also the handsome early-blooming American varieties, L. elegans and L. superbum. They thrive in any well-drained garden soil, but do best in the hardy border or among shrubbery. Plant bulbs twice their depth and when frost sets in, cover with 4 to 6 inches of leaves or litter, which should be removed in the spring.

Plant Your Roses in the Fall

IT IS THE BETTER TIME AND YOU HAVE MORE TIME TO DO IT RIGHT

Contrary to general belief, experiments have proven conclusively that Roses planted in late autumn will produce the best results. The success of the Rose in this country is largely a question of the selection of adaptable varieties and the preservation of a good, healthy root system. It is, therefore, apparent that plants freshly dug and transplanted in late fall should have an advantage over those dug in fall, stored over winter in sheds, and disturbed a second time when shipped in spring, for every time a plant is lifted, no matter how carefully done, the root system is disturbed, necessary fibrous roots are lost, and the vitality of the plant is lessened.

Buying Roses in the fall saves storage charges—it is cheaper.

Buying Roses in the fall assures you strong, healthy plants with good roots—very important.

Planting Roses in the fall gives you a better chance for the careful preparation of the soil and assures you best results.

In planting Roses, the graft or bud should be 2 inches below the soil. Just before the ground freezes, draw the soil up against the plant, in the same manner as you would hill up potatoes, and cover with leaves or salt-hay. The chances of losses from fall planting will be less than from spring planting.

Indoors—Right in Your Own Home Grow Bulbs for Winter Cheer in Schling's Prepared Bulb Fiber

And no need of ugly pots either! Use a bowl of your favorite color blending with the furnishing scheme of the room. This will lend an additional charm to your plant—you will enjoy it so much more.

Our Bulb Fiber is a complete substitute for soil scientifically prepared for use in receptacles without drainage. It is clean and odorless; no saucers necessary; no fear of staining the woodwork or table coverings. And bulbs really grow better in it than in soil for it absorbs and holds an even moisture and on account of its fluffiness allows the roots to penetrate freely. This Fiber is cleverly impregnated with plant-food in such a manner that it becomes available gradually but continually as required by the plants to assure a steady, healthy, and vigorous growth.

Prices of Schling's Prepared Bulb Fiber, Quart 50 cts.,
Half-Peck $1.25, Peck $2.25, Bushel $7

DIRECTIONS FOR USING BULB FIBER. Wet the Fiber thoroughly until it has absorbed all the water it can hold. This is best done in a pail or pan. Then squeeze out nearly all the water and it will be just right for planting. Fill the bowl three-fourths full, or to within a few inches of the top, according to the size of the bulb. Press down gently (never pack it down), set bulbs at the proper distances, and fill up with Fiber. Press it gently around the bulbs but don't pack it down. Keep the Fiber damp by spraying it lightly every day but never allow it to become too wet. All bulbs except Freesias, Callas, and Lilies-of-the-Valley should be kept in a dark place to develop roots before sprouting. Hyacinths, Daffodils, and Tulips require from four to six weeks; Paper-White and Soleil d'Or Narcissi and Chinese Lilies from two to three weeks. By bringing in a few bowls at intervals and making additional plantings one may enjoy blooming plants all through the winter months.
